SENIOR
CONTROLLED CHAOS . . .

The yearbook staff would like to dedicate our 2013 yearbook to our friend, Holly Bobo. Holly is a 2009 alumni of SHHS and has many inspirational paw prints in the halls and hearts of SHHS. When Holly was honored in the top ten of her senior class, she quoted Les Brown:

"Shoot for the moon. Even if you miss, you'll land among the stars."

The yearbook staff would like to take this oppotunity to say that we love and miss you, Holly. We are praying continually for your safe return home to your family and praying for your strength. Holly, you are in our lion hearts.

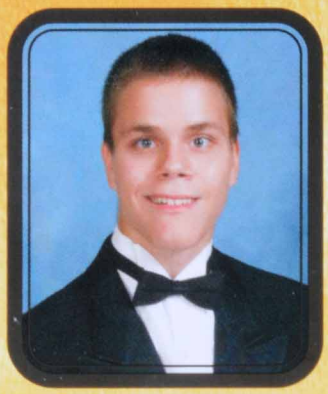

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

Controllers of the Chaos

J. Brian Norton
Principal

At SHHS, we are under the tutelage of a paradigm of leadership. Mr. J. Brian Norton serves as a beacon of calm in the chaos that is high school. From the beginning of our high school trek, he works to instill in us the sense of pride in our school, our community, and in our own personal accomplishments that becomes an essential part of our moral fiber. He works hard to promote a positive school environment that offers each of us the opportunity to grow mentally, morally, and physically. We find ourselves swept up in all that is the SHHS experience, which can seem like chaos at times. When we take a second to reflect, we realize that it is not chaos after all, but rather an excitement to be involved in as much as possible. We are truly blessed to have such a dedicated and effective controller of chaos as we have in Mr. Norton.

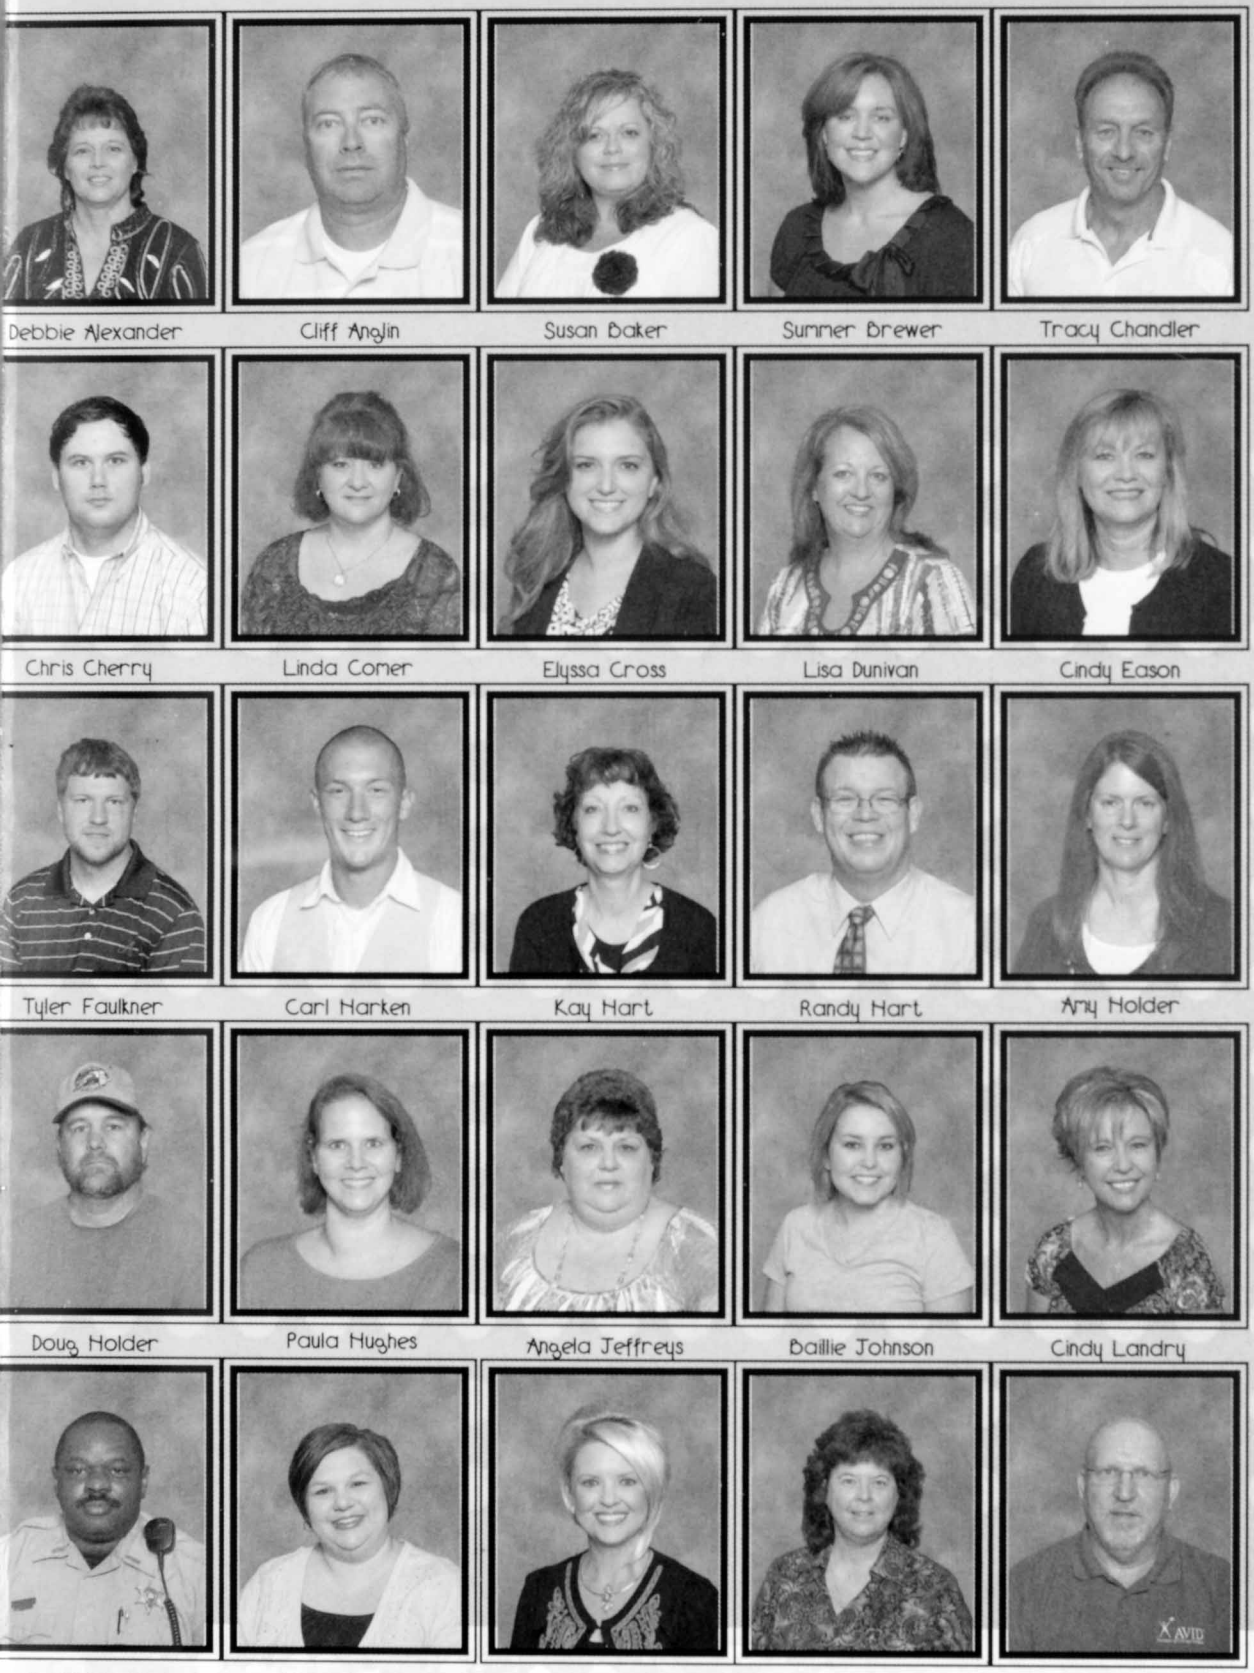

Beverly Ivy
Assistant Principal

An exemplary leader is one that you can count on to have your best interest at heart, one you can confide in, and one you can trust. Mrs. Beverly Ivy is not only an exemplary leader; she is an exemplary friend, an exemplary example, and an exemplary educator. Her love for her students is evident in her radiant smile and pride in their successes. Through a student's four-year journey at Scotts Hill, Mrs. Ivy's influence will help them navigate through the chaos. It is often said that "it is not about the destination, but the journey itself." Mrs. Ivy makes the hurly-burly ride through high school a little less perilous. Once we make it through the chaotic streams of high school, we find ourselves better positioned for the even more turbulent seas of the "real world" because of her leadership. Mrs. Ivy is the island of stability in the constant chaos that is SHHS.

Love you guys! -Brittney Carneal

If you told me three years ago that I would be blessed with countless opportunities at a school in the middle of nowhere, I'd call you crazy. Mr. Adam Simon, thank you for being such a positive and impactful mentor in my life. To my volleyball girls, give it your all and stay positive. -Marianne Saine

May: the month most seniors live for. The end of one life & the beginning of another. We made it guys; good luck underclassmen. -Nicole Burcham

As the year nears it's end, we are closer than ever to that graduation date. Over the years, I have gained so many friends and memories. I'll miss high school, but above all, Cassidy, Madeline, and Jessica, I'll miss ya'll the most. Goodbye <3 -Brooke Blankenship

We laughed until we had to cry, we loved right down to our last goodbye, but over the years we'll smile and recall, for just one moment. . . we had it all. we made it y'all. Brandi Crews

We walked so far together, we've grown so very close, but yesterday became today and we are on the verge of tomorrow; where we must go on alone and find the dreams we all dreamed of together. -Morgan Brasher

J'd like to pay a special gratitude to the LORD for giving me everything J'd ever wanted. This school is full of fond memories for me. J love all my friends. If the school could remember me for one thing, it'd be that J'm crazy, fun, and love to laugh. -Lukas Garner

These past four years have been absolutely amazing. I want to thank my family for being there for me no matter what. I also want to thank the friends who have stood by me through everything and always had my back no matter what. I love ya'll. Love, Katie Jones

I, Paulina Crowe, want to say goodbye to SHHS. I want to thank the faculty who has helped me along the way. I also send the biggest thanks to Jesus. I want to also thank my family for everything! Yearbook staff: I love y'all. God bless the class of 2013! - Paulina Crowe

"Forget about the days when it's been cloudy, but don't forget your hours in the sun. Forget about the times you've been defeated, but don't forget the victories you've won. Forget about mistakes that you can't change now, but don't forget the lessons that you've learned. Forget about misfortunes you've encountered, but don't forget the times your luck has turned. Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

Paulina,
I want to thank God for you and your accomplishments throughout your school years. There is not a Moma that could be more proud. As this begins the next stage of your life, I want you to always keep the Lord first in your life. Remember, no matter where you go or what you do, you'll always have Moma with you in your heart. God bless you, Paulina Lucille. I love you.

Paulina,
I love you more than you will ever know. I would tell you the stars are the limit, but if you'll lean on Jesus, the stars are just the beginning. I am very proud that God let me be your Daddy.

Jeremiah 29:11

Congratulations, Ethan!

As we have watched you grow into a wonderful young man, we wonder where the last 18 years have gone. It seems like only yesterday we brought you home from the hospital. We are so proud of the young man you have become, always keep your faith in God and you will prosper.

We love you to the moon and back!

Jessica

Jessica,
You came into this world;
so fragile and small.
I could hold you in the
palm of my hand;
Your little heart beating
so loud,
Your will to survive,
was strong.
For you are breath
of my breath;
Bone of my bone,
My sweet, sweet baby.

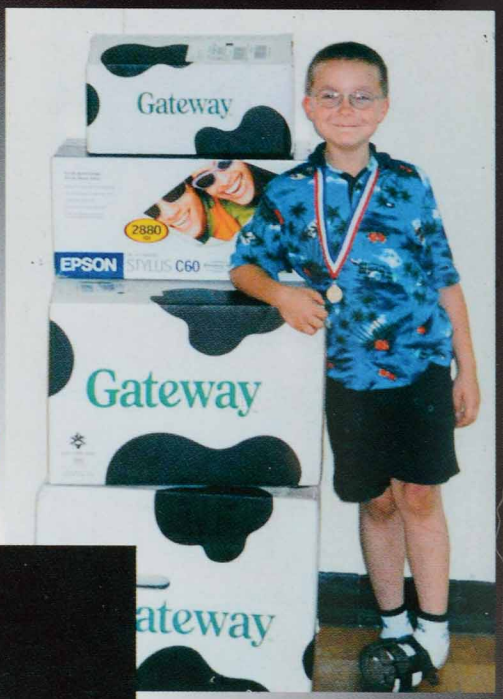

Just look at you now,
somewhere along the way;
You grew up and bloomed,
into a lovely, beautiful rose,
But wherever you go;
or whatever you do;
You will always be in my heart.

Mom

I CAN DO EVERYTHING
THROUGH HIM
WHO GIVES ME STRENGTH.

You have to leave the place of your comfort and go into the wilderness of your intuition. You can't get there by car, only by hard work and risk and by not quite knowing what you're doing, but what you'll discover will be wonderful. What you'll discover will be yourself!

Eighteen years ago, we received a precious gift on a cold December day. You have been a blessing to our family in so many ways. Washington, D.C., is where the experience began, and now time is fast approaching; senior year is at an end. As this part of the journey fades, another starts anew--embrace all you can, but never forget you'll always have a soft place to land. So, Joseph, here's wishing you the warmest blessings for success, peace, and happiness.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Mama's Marcy,

My cute little girl, with big bows in your hair, has grown up to be a beautiful young lady. Your school years have flown by and you are a SENIOR! I am so proud of each accomplishment you made each year. You will enter the "real world" soon. The most important thing to do is keep God first in your life. Walk and talk with Him daily. He will instruct you and teach you the way you should go. He will counsel you with His eyes upon you. Psalm 32:8. May your future be filled with much love and happiness. Keep smiling that beautiful smile and know I am thankful for you and love you always!

Mama

Marcy,

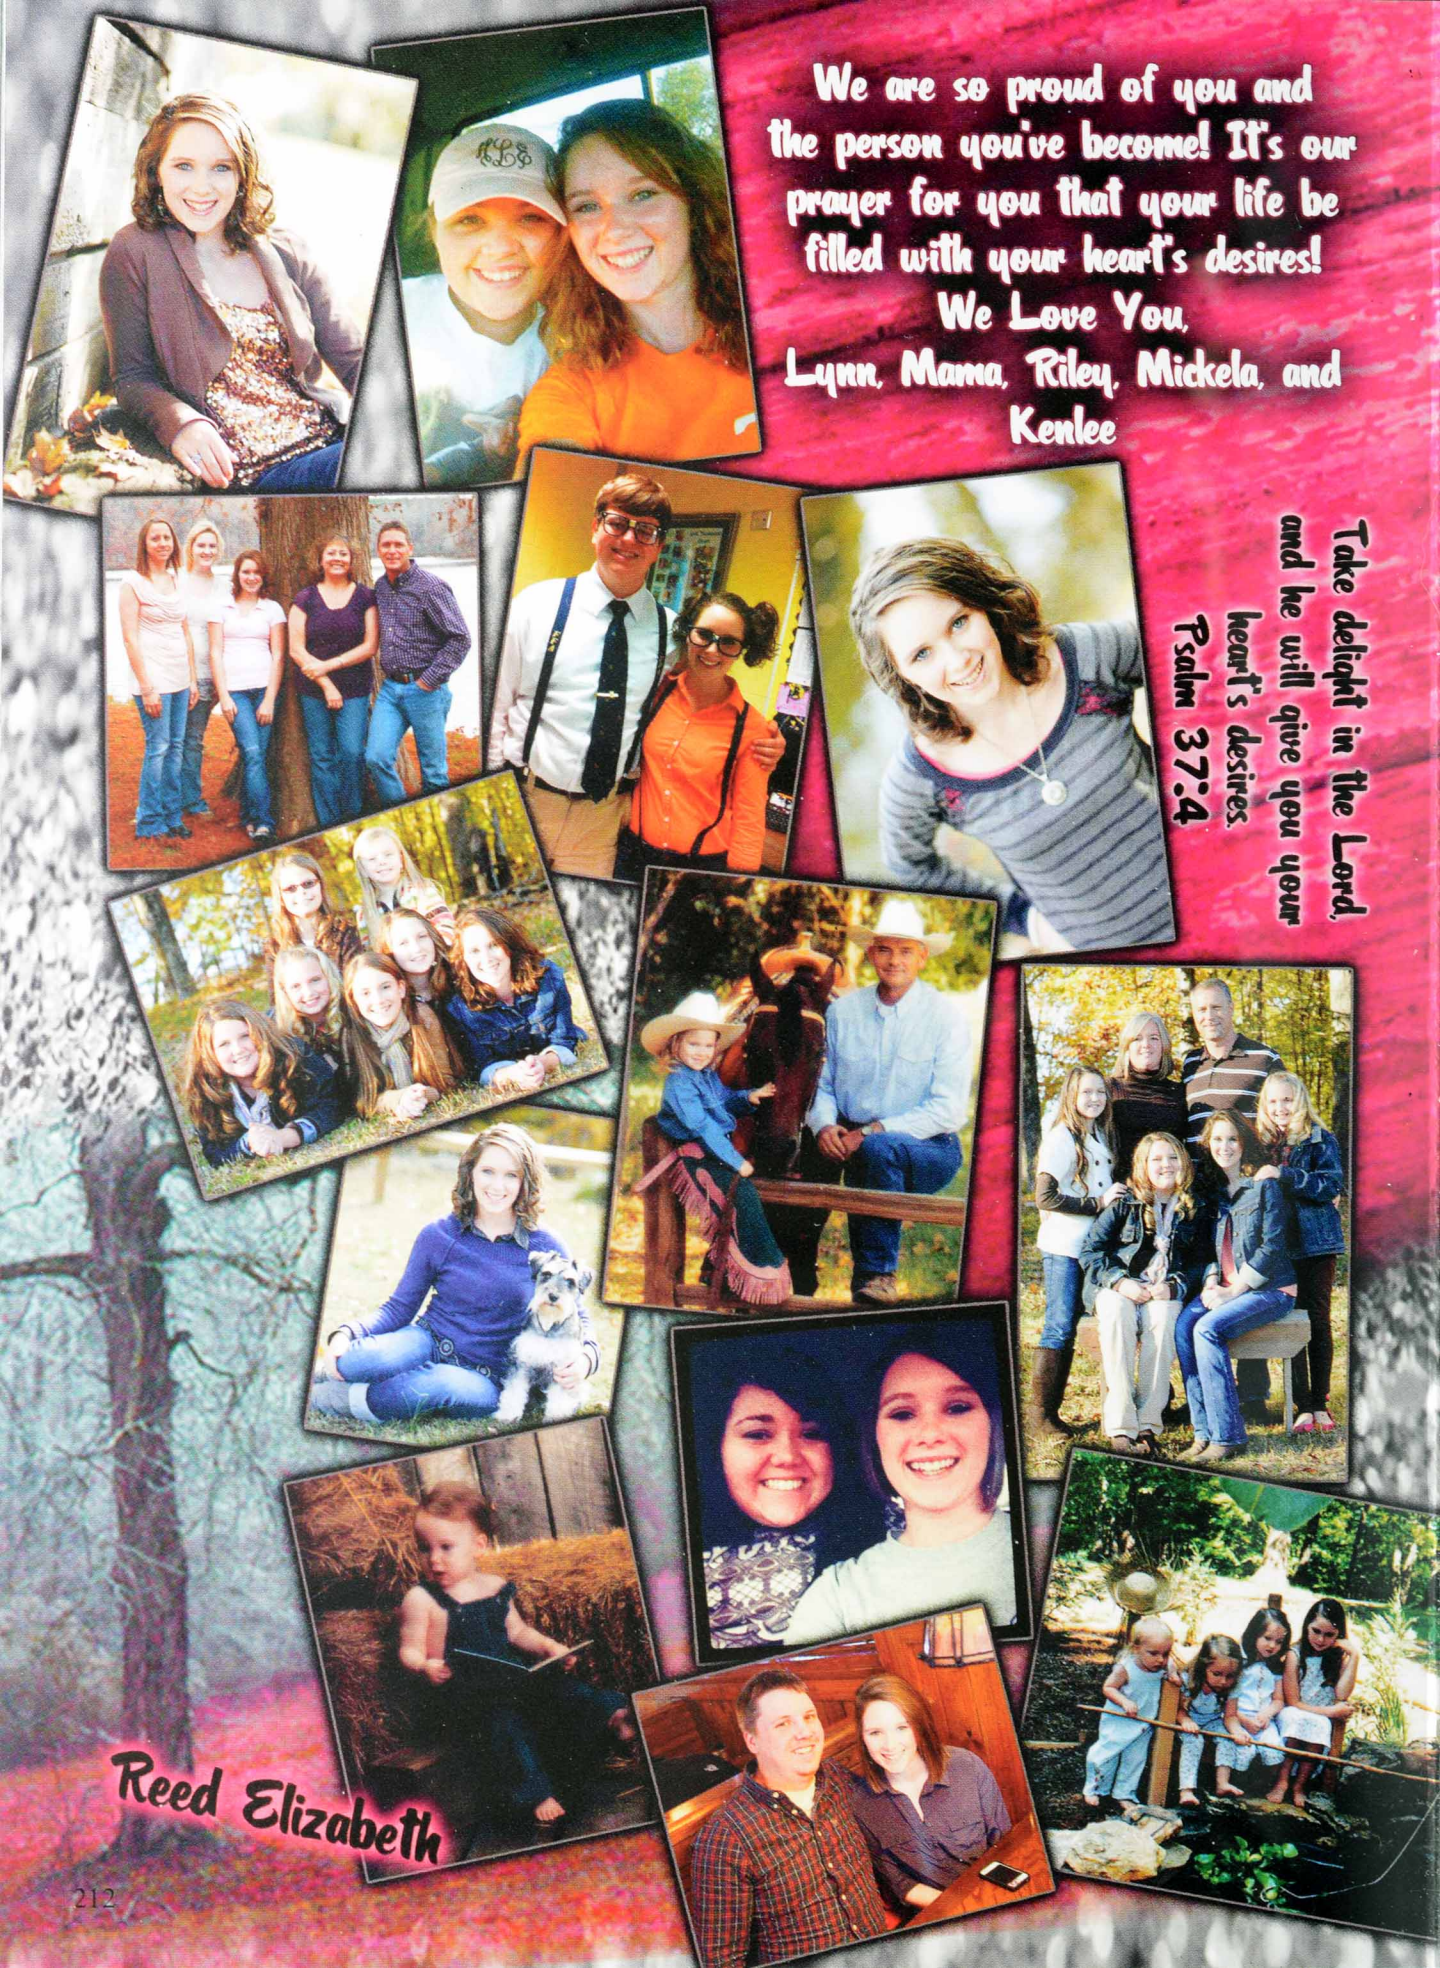

The day you were born you took my breath away. I am so proud of the amazing young lady you have become. The future comes one day at a time, the doors have been opened and it's time for you to walk through them. Your journey will be an adventure.

Remember to keep God as the center of your life. Cherish your character. Make your decisions wisely and stand by them. Embrace acceptance. Do not judge. Respect your elders. Listen to others. Don't be reckless with other people's hearts and don't allow people to be reckless with yours. Love unconditionally. Cherish your friendships. Show the world your beautiful smile. Follow your dreams and take pride in who you are. Pray every day.

You still take my breath away.

I love you. Daddy

Brittney,

Words cannot express the pride that we have in you. You are truly a gift from God. You are beautiful, intelligent, hard-working, compassionate,and a genuinely good Christian young lady. You have set lofty goals for yourself and have worked tirelessly to make them happen. You have all of the tools that you need to be successful in whatever endeavors you embark upon. Just know that in addition to those tools that you have acquired for yourself, you also have the love and support of your family. The future is both exciting and frightening, but you have everything you need to weather whatever comes your way. Just remember whose you are. You are ours, and you are the Lords. Always keep the values you have been taught paramount in you life, and you will have no problems in navigating this adventure that we call life.

Your one and only,

Uncle David

As you look towards the future
Always remember your past
The struggles and hard work.
They got you to where you are now.

Never take anything for granted
Because it could disappear.
Appreciate what you have,
But always strive for better.

When you feel as if your world is crashing around you and things
couldn't possibly get worse,
know that yes, they can get worse.
But...know that everything will be ok.
Nothing will last forever - not heartache,
not problems, not your six-pack abs.

Your amazing and kind heart is what draws people to you. Treat people well and they will treat you well. And if they don't, then you've at least done
the right thing.

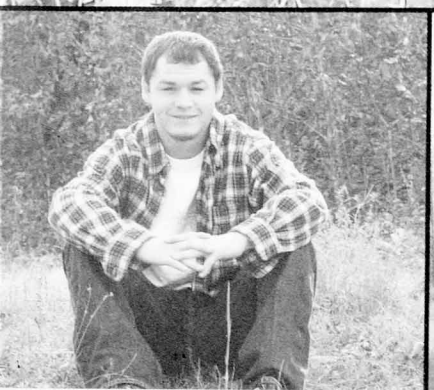

You are strong, funny, and talented.
Never stray from those qualities.
Taking care of yourself and being good to yourself helps you be good to others.

It is a priviledge to have you as our son. We are so very proud of you and the man you have become and look forward to seeing you in your new adventures.
Know that we are here for you.
We will always be here for you.

We love you so very much and
are so very proud of you David.
